

Brightstar Europe Signs UK Fulfillment Agreement with Lebara Mobile

BASINGSTOKE, ENGLAND - 29 August, 2008 -- Brightstar Europe has signed an agreement to provide end-to-end warehousing and supply chain services to mobile virtual network operator (MVNO) Lebara Mobile in the UK.

Lebara provides a range of SIM cards to major retail stores, high street chains and independent retailers throughout the UK. The agreement enables the company to take full advantage of Brightstar's state-of-the-art logistics capabilities to fulfill orders swiftly, accurately and cost-effectively.

Richard Baxendale UK Managing Director of Brightstar Europe, said that the agreement plays to the strengths of both companies. "Brightstar has access to some of the most advanced, state-of-the-art warehousing and distribution facilities. This agreement enables us to make even better use of those resources and gives Lebara the ability to provide a highly proficient and consistent service to its major retailer and dealer customers in the UK."

Commenting for Lebara Mobile, Rob Gaskin, UK Managing Director, stated, "We're delighted to be working with Brightstar, and look forward to leveraging the company's considerable resources to further enhance our customer service and grow, and develop our business throughout the UK."

Founded in 2001, Lebara generates annual sales in excess of €162 million and has more than 600,000 customers across Europe. Real Business magazine has named Lebara in its Hot 100 listing for the last two years in succession, and judges in the 2008 Mobile Awards voted Lebara Mobile Best Newcomer in the UK market. Lebara also has operations in Denmark, the Netherlands, Norway, Spain, Sweden, and Switzerland.
